Santa's Beer List

Santa has selected an amazing range of local brewed Cask Ale and Craft Beer for you to try.

Cask Ale or 'Real Ale' is the traditional form of British Beer. It is a "living" product that continues to ferment in the cask until it is served and according to CAMRA, the Campaign for Real Ale, it represents the "pinnacle of brewing art".

This year, for the first time at Burghfest, we also have a selection of Craft Beer, but What is Craft Beer?

There is no agreed definition of Craft Beer in the UK, so Santa asked his Elves what they thought Craft Beer was. Here is what they said.

"...like lager but more flavour"

"beer produced by a small independent brewer"

"Craft Beer – the only craft where it's you that gets hammered"

"Small but perfectly formed"

"Beer for avocado eating, quinoa swilling vegans, with a penchant for pretence"

"art in a glass"

"An IPA with whacky extra ingredients and strong enough to blow your head off"

"The beer equivalent of a Toyota Prius"

"Who gives a * what it's called. I'm off to the pub."

Not very helpful!

Santa then asked CAMRA but fell asleep during the rather lengthy response but thinks they said all real ale was craft beer but not all craft beer was real ale.

Fortunately, Santa is very old and well-travelled and remembered that the term Craft Beer originated in the USA. Mass produced bland lager led to the growth of small independent brewers being formed to brew beer with great taste. The predominate style was based on India Pale Ale (IPA) originating from England but these new brewers experimented by adding loads more hops and a range of other ingredients. More recently, they have similarly experimented with other traditional beer styles. The beer was sold at a premium price in kegs, bottles and cans and always served chilled. To distinguish these beers from mass produced bland beer, they coined the term 'craft beer' and defined it as beer brewed in a traditional way by small independent brewers. The growth of 'craft beer' in the US has been phenomenal and this beer style has been adopted by many of the new and existing small UK breweries to complement their 'real ale'.

Here at Burghfest we use the term "Craft Beer" to mean "awesome beer, naturally carbonated and best served chilled". Disagree with our definition? Feel free to discuss it over a pint of one of our excellent locally produced craft beers.

To help you choose your beer we have categorized our “Cask Ale” and “Craft Beer” as shown below:

Lager  Lager	Lager is a fizzy beer served chilled that has a reputation, at least amongst beer nerds, for lacking taste. We have selected a Craft Lager for the festival that shows that this doesn't have to be the case! Perfect for those who prefer a chilled fizzy drink. Real ale drinkers should try it to see how good lager can be. Lager is not available as a Cask Ale.
Pale  IPA or Pale Ale Golden Ales	India Pale Ale was first brewed for the colonial market and is strong in alcohol and high in hops to survive the sea journey. Look for juicy malt, citrus fruit and a big spicy, peppery bitter hop character, with strengths of 4% upwards. Golden Ale was developed in the 1980s as a lower strength refreshing summer drink to tempt lager drinkers. Golden ales are lighter hopped and hence less bitter than IPAs.
Amber  Bitter Best Bitter	These are the traditional English beer style. Look for a spicy, peppery and grassy hop character, a powerful bitterness, tangy fruit and juicy, and nutty malt. Best Bitters are stronger than Bitters and the malt and fruit character tends to dominate.
Dark  Mild or Stout	Mild is the oldest beer style in the country but out of fashion until recently. It has a taste all its own. Look for chocolate, fruity and nutty flavours. If you have never had Mild before, give it a try! Stouts have a profound dark and roasted malt character with raisin and sultana fruit, espresso or cappuccino coffee, liquorice and molasses, all underscored by a bittersweet taste.
Unfined 	Finings are a fish-based product that is used to clarify beer. The finings drop to the bottom of the cask with the yeast and are not consumed. There is a growing trend towards ‘unfined’ beers as they supposedly have more flavour. Because they don't use finings, they are slightly cloudy.

Note that ‘Unfined beers’ are suitable for vegetarians/vegans. None of our beers are gluten free.

Rudolph's Gin & Wine Selection

Rudolph has been working hard travelling the world to bring you an interesting and exciting range of gins from exotic locations like Bradford and Basingstoke as well as a couple of Gins from France.

The Rhubarb Triangle is definitely the best place to get Rhubarb gin from and obviously we had to find a space for Bombay Sapphire. From France Burghfest favourite Mistral Returns this accompanied by another French Gin called Osmoz, unusually made from grapes as the base this is a really cheeky surprise.

	Bombay Sapphire Gin England	Named in honour of Gin's popularity in India throughout British rule, Bombay Sapphire is actually a born and bred London Gin. Flavoured with the finest Juniper berries from Tuscany, these remain at the heart of Bombay Sapphire's flavour, resulting in its much loved dry, herbal tang.
	Osmoz Citrus Gin France	Unlike the dry, London-style gins, this vibrant, citrus-first spirit has been created using a base of grapes. It's a decidedly modern take, and the result is bittersweet, fruity and delicious.
	Rhubarb Triangle Gin England	This stunning gin comes from That Boutique-y Gin Company, front runners in the craft gin revolution. They've sourced this gin from the 'Rhubarb Triangle', an area within West Yorkshire famous for the most deliciously flavour-packed rhubarb.
	Terres de Mistral Gin France	Distilled from wine made with Provençal grapes and infused with the scent of garrigue herbs, this is the gin for Francophiles and especially lovers of France's sun-blessed south. You'll be charmed by the pale pink hue.

This year's wine selection sees the return of some old favourites including the Il Papavero Prosecco and Pinot Grigio and the Amoras Rose – these 3 really do not need an introduction.

We have moved further afield to bring some new wines this year. The Italian Pillastro Primitivo would be called a Zinfandel if it came from the Americas but coming from Italy has a round and mature flavour.

From Australia for a change we are pleased to introduce Willy Willy, full of flavour this Shiraz is perfect for a September evening and for our Sauvignon Blanc we moved across to New Zealand to bring a Fresh and lively wine from Marlborough a perfect accompaniment to sitting in the September Sun.

	Amoras Rosado 2018 Rose Portugal	Cabernet plus Portugal's prized Castelão and Camarate combine to make this unique and deliciously vibrant rosado. Rosé is a speciality of Portugal and it shows clearly in the ripe berry fruit and refreshing zip of this superb family estate pink.
	Company Bay Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2018 White New Zealand	With its thrilling rush of pure citrus and tropical fruit flavours, this classic New Zealand Sauvignon captures the life affirming qualities of sun blessed, ocean cooled Marlborough.
	Il Papavero Pinot Grigio 2017 White Italy	A crisp, fruity Pinot Grigio from Scipione Giuliani, the genius behind our bestselling Il Papavero range. A fantastic Sicilian wine.
	Il Papavero Prosecco Prosecco Italy	This Prosecco has notched up a bevy of 5-Star reviews and is a Burghfield Santa's favourite. A delicious and refreshing Prosecco brought to you the maestro Scipione Giuliani.
	Pillastro Primitivo 2018 Red Italy	Packed with spiced plum and raspberry flavour, this rich, dark, velvety red has bagged 50 awards in the last seven vintages, while the winery has twice been voted southern Italy's finest.
	Willy Willy Shiraz 2018 Red Australia	Willy Willy sums up all that we love about Aussie wine. It has bags of fruit flavour and character and is so easy to drink.

2019 Burghfest Beer & Cider Awards

The Beer & Cider awards will be in the following categories:

- Best Cask Ale

This year we have combined all the beer styles into a single award for Cask Ale. Strong contenders here are likely to be Burghfest favourites, and multi-award winning, Good Old Boy, Reading CAMRA Beer of the Festival, Silly Moo and of course Santa's Pride, specially brewed for Burghfest by Little London.

- Best Craft Beer

Unusual flavours may dominate this class, with Mango Milkshake IPA competing with Sprucie Bonus or will it be awarded to CAMRA Supreme Champion Beer of Britain 2018, Broken Dream?

- Best Cider

In this category the key battle may be between cider dispensed from the box with cider from a KeyKeg served chilled and carbonated.

The winners will be chosen by you! Rate the beers as you try them at www.burghfest.uk then

Entertainment

Burghfest 2019 features an awesome range of local bands.

Friday Line-up

21:20 - 23:00	Murdoch's Crazy Eyes Burghfest House Band No introduction required, Dom (lead singer) dominates the stage with the most amazing performance you will ever see. A huge amount of love for these highly energetic and talented guys at Burghfest, they get better every time. facebook.com/MCEmusic
20:05 - 20:50	Rocket Kings All original music A 5 piece Uke pop band, with the biggest darn smiles on facebook. These guys are happy and chirpy, it bubbles through their music. if you don't know what a Uke is, come along and find out. facebook.com/rocketkings
19:00 - 19:45	Audiotonic Rock & Pop High energy rock & pop covers band. Expanding repertoire including The Killers, Kings of Leon, Guns n Roses, Blondie, Van Halen, The Beatles, The Kinks, Queen plus more... facebook.com/Audiotonic-319620028733290
18:00 - 18:40	Sonic Weapon Wild Rock Legends Nothing can prepare you for Sonic Weapon, really.. nothing! There are no words to describe what might happen on stage this year. Come and experience the dream show with Ben and the crew. Heckling is compulsory. facebook.com/SonicWeaponBurghfield

Saturday Lineup

22:30 - 23:00	80's Disco Dance the rest of the night away with the best of the 80's disco.
21:25 - 22:25	Deaf Dogs R&B Burghfields finest boy band, these R&B local legends take centre stage once again in one long beautiful music extravaganza. Not to be missed. facebook.com/DeafDogsRandB
20:00 - 21:00	Bottle Kids Rock Awesome hard rock covers with extra sequins! Set includes Led Zeppelin, AC/DC, RATM, Skunk Anansie, System of A Down, Motorhead, Red Hot Chilli Peppers. facebook.com/BottleKidsRock
18:50 - 19:40	The Meanies Soul, Motown, Ska We are lucky to have the Meanies join us at Burghfest, Non stop Soul, motown, ska and 60s classics to get everyone dancing. facebook.com/groups/themeanies
17:45 - 18:30	Small Strings Ukulele Band Take 25 ukuleles, stir in 6 singers, a pound of bass, add a pinch of percussion, then simmer on low and you have The Small Strings. Their quirky repertoire is mixed together from pop, rock and soul tunes, all of which have been given a unique ukulele twist. The Small Strings have had audiences across UK and the South east singing and bopping along ... not to be missed. facebook.com/TheSmallStrings
16:40 - 17:25	Head of Steam Rock and Indie Back by popular demand, a Reading based four piece band playing mostly original music. facebook.com/HeadofSteamBand

Burghfest Prize Draw

The Burghfest Prize Draw this year feature a range on fabulous prizes including:

1st Prize. Champagne Afternoon Tea at The Wolseley for 4

One of the most special treats in London has, for many years, been a classic afternoon tea at The Wolseley. Located on Piccadilly in London's West End, families and friends come together in the delightful surroundings of this elegant, traditional café-restaurant to celebrate and enjoy an exquisite tea experience.

For a group of up to four people, starting with a glass of champagne, enjoy an assortment of finger sandwiches, fruit scones with homemade jam and Devonshire clotted cream, a selection of pastries and your choice of the finest teas from around the world, all enjoyed in some of the plushiest surroundings London has to offer.

Your evening begins with pre-theatre dinner for two people at Jason Atherton's highly acclaimed Social Eating House restaurant in Soho. You will take an early sitting and enjoy a stunning three-course menu featuring market-led modern cuisine, with table water and a bottle of house wine to get you in the mood for your evening of indulgence and entertainment.

After dinner, take a stroll or grab a cab to your chosen theatre. The West End is jam-packed with world-class shows (current favourites include The Lion King, Les Misérables, The Book of Mormon and 9 to 5), allowing us to arrange good tickets to your choice of spectacular Musical Show, with guaranteed unrestricted view. Available Monday to Thursday, subject to schedule of shows, availability of tickets and restaurant booking.

Tickets only £5

All proceeds go to the Thame Valley Air Ambulance

THAMES VALLEY AIR AMBULANCE

All profits from Burghfest go to Thames Valley Air Ambulance.

Thames Valley Air Ambulance is at the frontline of saving lives. Our highly trained team gives the best chance when the worst happens.

Every day, someone in our community could be in urgent need of our service. Within minutes, we bring the expertise, equipment and treatment of the hospital to you.

Our doctor and paramedic teams are able to perform advanced medical procedures at the scene of an incident. We deliver treatment that would normally only be available in a hospital by taking advanced medical care and expertise to a patient, saving time when minutes matter. This means that a patient is diagnosed, treated and given hospital-level care more quickly, increasing the chance of survival.

Operating 19 hours a day, 365 days a year, the iconic red helicopter is staffed with an expert pilot, doctor and paramedic and can reach anyone in need the region within 15 minutes of take-off. The road vehicles, known as Critical Care Response Cars, carry the same equipment as the helicopter.

Thames Valley Air Ambulance is a charity and is fully funded by the generosity of the community it serves across Berkshire, Buckinghamshire and Oxfordshire.
